CHART KEY

- A reign of Israel, the northern kingdom.
- A reign of Judah, and of David and Solomon.
- Saul and his son Ishbosheth, of Benjamin.
- Dashed: co-regent or rival (the years in brackets in the table), or years that are approximate (c.).
- Did what was right in the sight of the LORD;
- did evil;
- both. No mark: the text gives no verdict.
- An event, with its year and verse.
- ⑤ In the border: the ruler's number in the table.

SOURCES AND NOTICES

Names, lengths, cross-datings and verdicts: the New King James Version, read at each reign's opening and closing formula. Years: E. R. Thiele, The Mysterious Numbers of the Hebrew Kings (3rd ed., 1983), as commonly tabulated; the approximate years of Saul and Ishbosheth follow from David's. Ussher: Annals of the World (1650–1654), public domain. A reckoning, not a statement of Scripture.
